DISCLAIMER: The foregoing chart provides general information about the coverage available under the three policies identified. In all cases, the specific language in the policy issued to an insured shall constitute the terms and conditions of the title company's obligations to its insured.

The above chart compares the title insurance protection provided to a residential purchaser by three typical policies:

2006 ALTA Standard Owner's Policy - Includes the protection provided by the Homeowner's Additional Protection Endorsement. The endorsement only applies to owner-occupied residential property.

*2010 ALTA Expanded Homeowner's Policy - Applies to one-to-four family residential structures, but does not require the insured to occupy the property. Under this policy, some Covered Risks are subject to deductibles and maximum liability amounts:

ITEM 16: Deductible applies, the lesser of 1% or $2,500 of the Liability under the policy. Maximum liability for this coverage is $10,000.

ITEM 18: Deductible applies, the lesser of 1% or $5,000 of the Liability under the policy. Maximum liability for this coverage is $25,000.

ITEM 19: Deductible applies, the lesser of 1% or $5,000 of the Liability under the policy. Maximum liability for this coverage is $25,000.

ITEM 21: Deductible applies, the lesser of 1% or $2,500 of the Liability under the policy. Maximum liability for this coverage is $5,000.

2006 ALTA Extended Owner's Policy - Insures against loss due to the certain off-record matters and survey matters, as shown above. If not otherwise excepted from coverage, some of these off-record matters and survey matters are covered by the ALTA Expanded Homeowner's Policy (subject to deductibles and maximum liability) or by the Homeowner's Additional Protection Endorsement attached to an ALTA Standard Owner's Policy.
